

THE RANDOM DIGITAL JOURNAL GENERATOR

- ▶ First, click here and press the button to generate a line of Shakespeare. Pick any two or three consecutive words. That is the title of your journal.
- ▶ Then, click here and generate one random picture. That's the cover image of your journal.
- ▶ Now, cross the bridge to the library and pick a random book from the column of shelves at T10.5 - T36 or TK5101 - TK 5105. Go to page 83. Pick a sentence from that page. That's the mission statement of your journal.
- ▶ Use a digital tool like Google Drawing (or something else) to create a mood board for an imaginary journal, including your title, image, mission statement and other text and images that might inspire the project.
